Burial of Miss Gertrude Hinkley. Michael Mellody and Edward Sheerin-Women Blockade Street Cars and Boys Throw Stones. Number of Mine Accidents-News of the Churches-Samuel Dingman Died From Injuries-Other News Notes and Personals.

Three large funerals were seen in West Scranton yesterday afternoon, those of the late Miss Gertrude Hinkley, Michael Mellody and Edward Sheerin. The former was conducted from the home of deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hinkley on North Main avenue, and was attended by multitude of young people, who in life had come in contact with the young

The services were conducted by flev H. C. McDermott, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, who spoke of the kindly nature and af-fable disposition of deceased. The many floral offerings partially attested the esteem in which she was held. Interment was made in the Washburn cemetery. The pall-bearers were Jesse Foresman, William Boland John Devine, George Dixon, John Burton, Frank Lloyd, Flower-bearers, Laura Strunk, Laura Pawling, Teresa Lynott, Gertrude McHale, The funeral of the late Michael J.

Mellody occurred at 2.20 o'clock from his home, 240 Railroad avenue, where many relatives and friends had gathered to pay their respects. The cortege moved to Holy Cross church, where impressive services were conducted by Rev. W. P. O'Donnell. As the remains were carried into the church, Miss Margaret Thornton, of North Scranton, sang the "Ave Maria," accompanied on the organ by Miss Kate Reardon.

She also sang "Neaver, My God to Thee," when the body was being carried out of the church. A large delegation from the O. F. Johnson Hose company, of Dunmore, were in attendance. The pall-bearers were: James Padden, John Fitzgerald, Walter Lynn, and Timothy Collins. The flower-bearers were Michael Demosey. Thomas Gallagher, Frank Hawley and James Moore. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of the late Edward Sheerin occurred from the home of his sister, Mrs. Peter Cosgrove, on Division street. Short services were held in St. Patrick's church by Rev. P. E. Lavelle, and burial was made in the Cathedral cemetery. The pall-bearers were Eugene Cosgrove, John Kearney. Thomas Finley, James O'Neill, Michael Hagen and James McAndrew.

Injured in Premature Blast.

Henry Burgess, miner, and Anthony Pander, laborer, employes in Briggs shaft, were caught by a fall of roof while at work recently, and both had cost miraculous escape from death They had prepared a blast, and retired to a place of safety. After waiting a easonable length of time for the customary explosion, the men decided that the fuse had falled to ignite the powder. and started back to the chamber to re-

No sooner had they reached the gang vay in front of their chamber than the explosion occurred, bringing down tons of rock and coal. Both men were caught by the falling debris, and nearly smothered. Their cries were heard by other workmen in the adjoining chamber, and they instened to the rescue.

Burgess and Pander were both in emi-conscious condition when rescued, and as quickly as possible their fellowworkmen rendered the customary first ald to the injured. The ambulance was summoned and both were removed to their homes on South Grant avenue, Dr. Brennan was called, and found them suffering from internal and bodily injuries, but fortunately no bones were broken.

It was a narrow escape, and they ere lucky to escape with so few inincies, as such accidents invariably result in instant death and horrible mangling of the victims.

Street Car Incidents.

A number of women residing on Lu erne"street persistently indulged in placing stones on the street car tracks yesterday, much to the annoyance of the ear runners. As soon as the men would remove them the women replaced the stones on the track again. When patience ceased to be a virtue, the men chased the women into their homes. Arrests are likely to follow to-

A number of small boys indulged in throwing stones at a Lafayette street car yesterday afternoon on Lafayette street and succeeded in breaking a number of windows. The street car men caught a couple of them, secured their names, and then allowed them to go. Warrants will be sworn out for their arrest.

A Noonday Wedding.

John P. Powell, of Upper Lehigh, and Miss Gertrude Whitman, daughter of Mrs. Eliza Whitman, of 118 South Rebeeca avenue, were united in marriage noon on Saturday, at the home of of the Presbyterian church at Upper Lehigh.

The couple were unattended, and the bride wore a becoming traveling gown, crimmed with white applique. After an

The remains were removed to his ome, from which place the funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held in the Hampton street Methodist Episcopal church, and Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

Choral Rehearsals.

The Oxford Clee club held a spirited rehearsal vesterday afternoon in Cooperative hall, under the leadership of David Stephens. The club is singing splendidly, and are enthusiastic over the prospects of winning the chief male party prize at the North Scranton eisteddfod on Thanksgiving day.
The mixed choir, under the leadership of William John Davis, held their regular weekly rehearsal last evening in the First Welsh Congregational hurch. The chief competitive selection was rendered effectively, and the trio sang superbly.

The female party, led by Mrs. D. B. Thomas, rehearsed in Powell's music store Saturday evening. This chorus is made un of some of the best voices in the city, among whom are the follow-

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Louis Schwass Will Be a Candidate to Succeed Himself as School Controller in Nineteenth Ward.

At the coming municipal election. Louis Schwass, school controller from the Nineteenth ward, will be a candidate for re-election. It is very probable that he will be returned unopposed. Mr. Schwass represents an overwhelmingly Democratic ward and, though a staunch Republican, he has hosts of friends in the opposing camp. He is a valued member of the board, fearless, unflinching and absolutely honest. As a member of the Century Hose company, he was for years district engineer of the fire department and at times acting chief. He is one of the most experienced fire-fighters in the

Mr. Schwass is building up a large business as contractor and builder, and is at present out of the city, being engaged in the construction of some buildings at Siegfried, Pa. He has been for years Republican committeeman delegate to state convention, and in general is considered one of the most energetic workers in the party.

Funeral of Father Gulovich.

Priests of the Greek church from all over the state were present at the obsequies, and at a solconducted at the church, on Stone avenue, at 9 o'clock. There was also a large representation of Roman Catholic priests of the diocese.

Services were conducted at the Greek cemetery in Minooka, before the body was lowered into the grave. The pallbearers were chosen from among the Greek Catholic clergy.

Junger Maennerchor to Sing.

A well-attended session of the Junger Maennerchor was held at their headquarters, on Cedar avenue, yesterday afternoon. At the close of a short singng practice, the members proceeded to Music hall, where they participated in the grand chorus of the various societies, which will take part in the Switzer concert at Music hall this evening. A ball will follow the musical programme, and as the Swiss society is always well patronized, the affair will doubtless prove a great success.

A Cowardly Assault.

Edward Rader, a well-known young set upon by several thugs about 12 o'clock Saturday night and badly beaten. Mr. Rader had just left his Heyson, 1715 Monroe avenue; Mrs brother's hotel, on Lackawanna avenue, and was on the way home, when he noticed that the fruit stand at the corner of Lackawanna avenue and Mattes street had been partially wrecked and much of the contents thrown in the street. He remarked to Frank, the proprietor, that it was a shabby trick, whoever was responsible, and he had no sooner uttered the words than a couple of burly ruffians, who had been standing nearby in the shadow, asked what business it was of his, or if he had any stock in the concern.

Before Rader could reply or defend himself, they set upon him with fists and feet and he was badly beaten and bruised. Rader managed to break away at last, but was pursued nearly a block along Lackawanna avenue, when the ruffians disappeared on the approach of assistance.

The vietim of the assault was injured on the head and kicked on the thigh and ribs so that he can hardly walk.

Sermon Delivered Last Night by the Pastor in the M. E. Church-School Board Held a Meeting Saturday Night-A Successor Has Not Yet Been Selected for Prof. Niemeyer Place in the High School-Fire in a House Owned by Valentine Lolli.

Yesterday marked the beginning of the fourth week of the special services at the Methodist Episcopal church. At both the morning and evening services unusually large congregations were present and a growing interest was manifested. In the morning the pastor delivered a powerful sermon from the 5th chapter of Galatians, 16-17th verses. At the evening service his subject was "The Rejected Guest." His ext was from Matthew xxii 10-13. He sald in part:

The whole scheme of this perable is a ngurat ive description of God's extending to the world the invaluable blessing of the gospel. Christ represented this to us in the similitude of a king solemnizing the matriage of his son wit great pomp and extensory, and with equal bount inviting all about him to the royal occasion with his condemnation upon all those who rejected the invitation and his rejection of a nan who attempted to attend in an improper ondition. Thus the kingdom of God resembles the marriage feast in many parts, the propertion, invitation and participation. Though a nen are called to this gospel teast, God requires omething on our part.

God's plan of salvation takes in all mankind All can be saved it they with God has provided a perfect salvation. The attenuent is complete. But it rests on certain conditions. We must a cept, if we derive the benefit. We understand was an eastern custom when a king or nobleman years a missionary in South India, ad-dressed the congregation of Plymouth their guest, and the guests were to put them ou in order to enjoy the feast. So it is that the atomement of Christ must be appropriated by us by a living faith if we are to receive an

But that it will be real pun-islanent no reasonable sane man who read-Christ's words can doubt. The punishment will be severe, for the original says, "There will be be severe, for the original says. "There will be weeping that is weeping, and there will be each."

I know that there is a moral recoil from such thoughts. But there is no place for such thought in the Scripture. For they plainly So if we would escape punishment we must pu on the garment now while we stand in the if He is love He will not punish. Love is the most exacting thing in all this world. If you disobey "Love" your punishment is always swift

He then made a very earnest pleafor the unsaved to make a start then to serve Christ, after which he invited the people to gather around the altar and there was a large response to the invitation.
